

GROWING UP ONLINE

Findings from a youth engagement project with children and young people aged (12-26) across Greater Glasgow and Clyde, hearing their views and experiences of being online.

ONLINE EXPERIENCES

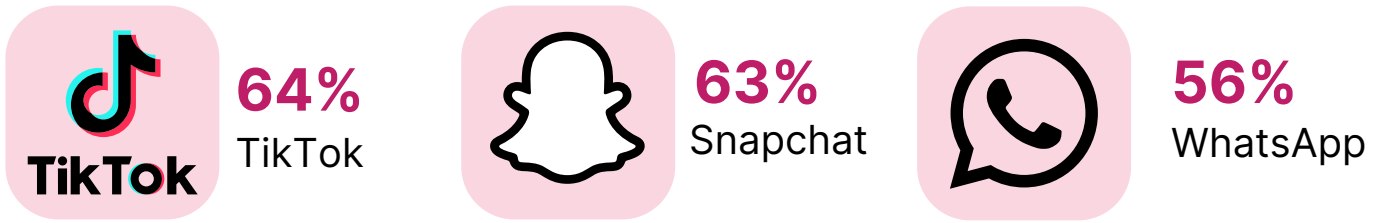

82%

Reported feeling safe online, with most reporting positive experiences

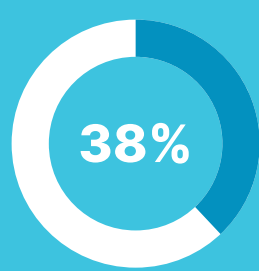

The most popular online activities:

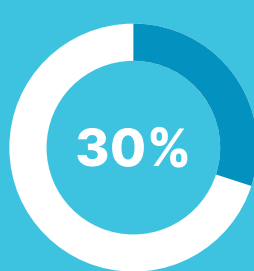

The most popular platforms:

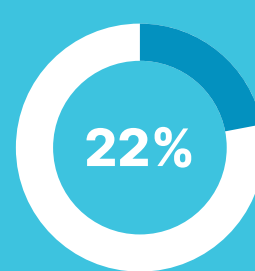

TOP WORRIES

Personal information being shared

Sending 'nudes'

Falling for scams/tricks

SEEKING SUPPORT

67%

Would talk to their parents or peers if something went wrong.

17%

Would talk to no one.

"[If you speak to] friends/family – it might change how they see you"

DIGITAL SKILLS & SAFETY

What young people find the hardest online:

What would help them feel more confident and safe:

The full report can be read below:

Read the report

"I think that more safety and security online should be taught more at schools. Especially in primary schools as they are the most vulnerable and do not get taught a lot of it"